

NATION DIVIDED

A Nation truly divided
Sea to shining sea
I can't offer up solutions
May I suggest turning off your T.V.

The programming is extensive
So sit back, have a snack
Cuz it's so binge-worthy

Red or Blue, let's divide it
Choose a side and reside
In your choice of History

But there's a light that I see
Flickering in the trees
Can you say U.A.P?

It seems to understand me
And the thoughts that be
Racing through my mind

How I wonder who you are—
Traveling Time or from a distant Star?

Our nation now is divided
Catch my drift there's a rift
In the Pentagon

5-pointed Star now inverted
Lies so thick, Black Magick
And the war is on

If there is truly a Justice
Balance swing and we bring
Shadow to the Light

Truth-seekers now are united
In the quest for the rest
To wake up from a collective nightmare

I hear a song in my mind
Of the Rock and Roll kind
With a catchy beat

And we will never lose face
As the globalists race
To maintain control

Planetary orbs so bright
Guide us through
The darkest night.
